The Reepham Archives are held on the first floor of the Bircham Centre, which is the oldest part of the building, dating back to the 16th century. The archives contain both the Bircham Centre and the town archives. The collection of pictures, maps and documents give an interesting picture of past life and events in Reepham along with some of the people who lived here.

The archives are managed by a group of volunteers. If you have some time to spare, are interested in history and would like to join this friendly group of people, please may contact via the website Reephamarchive.co.uk or write to admin@reephamarchive.co.uk. The archives are open to the public on the first Wednesday and Saturday of the month from 10.00 am – 12 noon or at other times by appointment.
